Dedication

To those whose love and encouragement have contributed so much to all our school years; to those whose efforts and sacrifices we can never fully repay -- to our mothers -- we gratefully dedicate this, the fourteenth volume of the Oviedian.

Class History

The class of 50-51, the most aggressive and intellectual class ever to enter and leave Oviedo High School, began its education on September 5, 1939, with Miss Marguerite Parsons as its guide on the upward march to fame. The following thirteen members were enrolled: Rubin Bedenbaugh, Frankie Gore, James Wheaton, Charles McCulley, Robert Lee Ward, Michael Mikler, Billy Bradley, Carl Sellers, Bettye Aulin, Reda Bush, Ruth Bedenbaugh, Dorothy Malcolm, and Virginia Conrad.

In 1940, our second year, we continued with Miss Aldred Cone as our teacher, losing seven members, and gaining six, Geneva Bailey, Grace Barr, Peggy Stansel, Barbara Glassmire, Marie Faulk, and Hubert Beville.

We began our third year with Miss Cone. We lost three pupils, and gained Betty George, Joyce Waters, and J. L. Williams.

In our fourth year, with Mrs. Frances Stine, we lost four members, and gained Hubert Beville, Bryan Nettles, Nina McMahan, Thomas Snuth, and Annette Jackson.

With Miss Wanda Lee Anderson as our teacher, we began our fifth year. We lost five pupils, and gained Alma Ellis, Charles Malcolm, Violet Best, Hazel Rutherford, Norma Hamil, and Willie Tabor.

In the sixth grade we gained M. D. Long, Ferdinand Jakubcin, Gloria Gay, Jeanne Sheldon, Virginia Long, Charlene Gatlin, and lost Willie Tabor.

In the seventh grade, with Miss Lois Ruddell as our teacher, we lost six pupils, and gained Hilliard Fleming and Sadye Beth Fleming.

In the eighth grade we lost two pupils, and gained Violet Rogers, Nina Dishman, James Gillmore, Donald Hardy, and Harold Sheldon.

In the ninth grade, with Mrs. Elaine Bauman as our teacher, we lost three pupils, and gained none.

In the tenth grade, with Miss Judy Walker as our teacher, we lost no pupils, and gained only one, Ellen Wright.

With Mrs. Judy Anderson, nee Miss Judy Walker, as our teacher, we lost three pupils and gained none.

In the twelfth grade, we lost three pupils, and gained none. The enrollment this year is as follows: Bettye Aulin, Nina Dishman, Sadye Beth Fleming, Norma Jean Hamil, Dorothy Malcolm, Hazel Rutherford, Jeanne Sheldon, Donald Hardy, and Charles McCulley. This year we have the excellent guidance of Mr. Paul Mikler as our teacher. We hope to march down the aisle this June 7th to receive our diplomas.

History: A German and a Russian were fishing on opposite sides of a river that divided the Russian and American zones. The German caught fish after fish, while the Russian didn't get a bite. Finally, the Russian yelled across the river, "How is it you catch fish and I get none?" The German thought a minute, then replied, "I guess on your side they are afraid to open their mouths."

Ted: "If I'd known that tunnel was going to be so long I'd have kissed you."

Bettye: "Gracious! Wasn't that you?"

When grandma had her callers; They met with timid heart. And when they sat together; They sat this far apart!
When granddaughter's boyfriend calls; He greets her with a kiss. And when they sit together; They sit real closelike this!

Nina: "Thanks for the hug!"

Jim: "Oh, the pressure was all mine!"

He had choked her. She was dead; there was no doubt about it. He had listened to her dying gasp. Now, she was cold -- cold as the hands of death. Yet in his anger he was not convinced. Furiously he kicked her. To his amazement she gasped, sputtered, and then began to hum softly.

"Just a little patience is all it takes, Walter," remarked Mrs. Teague from the back seat of the car.

Class Poem

Our class in number is very small,
Two boys and seven girls in all.

We have the scholarship and the pulchritude;
To our teachers we never have been rude.

Our dear O.H.S. will long remember,
Our senior year here beginning last September.

Why should our class remembered be?
Just watch our smoke and you will see.

Jeanne Sheldon came to us from old Mass.
The only (excuse us) Yankee in our class.

Donald Hardy, so popular and tall,
Is proving himself at basketball.

Charlie McCulley, also on our team,
With left hand shots is on the beam.

Dot Malcolm, actress, singer, cowgirl, hick?
Which would you like? Just take your pick.

Sadye Beth, divinely tall and fair,
Courteous, sweet, studious, and debonnaire.

Nina, the strawberry blonde, you will find,
Demure and sweet, full of mischief, but kind.

There's Hazel, quiet, courteous, neat;
That smile of hers is hard to beat.

Norma Jean, the versatile, plays "Mountain Stream";
With good looks and pretty clothes she's a dream.

Bettye who in size is only a mite,
In athletics and scholarship is a giant.

The world we're entering at last, now needs us
Our faith, our hope, our courage, and genius.

Last Will And Testament

To the faculty we will our thirst for knowledge.

To the "Industrious Juniors" we will our dignity.

To the "Ambitious Sophomores" we will our co-operativeness with all the teachers.

To the "Verdant Freshmen" we will four years of hard labor.

As individuals we will the following:

I, Hazel Rutherford, will and bequeath my ability in basketball to Ann Leinhart, my typing speed to Larry French, and my good grades in Spanish to Joanne Fleming.

I, Norma Jean Hamil, will and bequeath my ability to play "Mountain Stream" to Ferdinand Jakubcin, my love of English literature to the Junior Class, and my position in all the plays as a "spoiled brat" to sweet little Georgene Parker.

I, Bettye Aulin, will and bequeath my ability to sleep unnoticed in literature class to Juanita Barlow, my ability to get along with Mrs. Windham in Spanish class to Ted Glassmire, and my position as editor-in-chief of the annual to Velora Moon.

I, Sadye Beth Fleming, will and bequeath my ability to type and get by with Mrs. Metcalf to Walter Duda, my ability in basketball to Martha Jean Hardy, and my cheerleading ability to Joanne Fleming.

I, Dorothy Malcolm, will and bequeath my twelve years of hard labor to Joe Malcolm, my love of Shakespeare to the sophomores, and my ability to turn my hair red to Hazel Priest.

I, Nina Dishman, will and bequeath my red hair to Hazel Priest to match her quick temper, my position as captain of the cheerleaders to Ivan Jakubcin, and my ability to be on time for everything to Juanita Barlow.

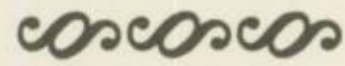

I, Jeanne Sheldon, will and bequeath my misfortune of having male troubles to Hazel Priest, also, my ability to stall around in Physical Ed. to Betty Hill, and my legible handwriting to Bobby Shaffer.

I, Charlie McCulley, will and bequeath my ability to need a shave once a day and get around to it once a week to Bobby Cox, and my left-handed basketball shot to Donnie Kasell.

I, Donald Hardy, will and bequeath my unending knowledge of chemistry to Prof. Teague, and my good Spanish grades to Miss Ruddell's next Spanish Class.

ANTONIO

ANTONIO, Antonio,
Was tired of living alonio.
He thought he would woo
Miss Lissamy Lu,
Miss Lissamy Lucy Molonio.

Antonio, Antonio,
Rode off on his polo-ponio.
He found the fair maid
In a bowery shade,
A-sitting and knitting alonio.

Antonio, Antonio,
Said, "If you will be my ownio,
I'll love you true,
And I'll buy for you
And icy creamery conio!"

"Oh, nonio, Antonio!
You're far too bleak and bonio!
And all that I wish,
You singular fish,
Is that you will quickly begonio."

Antionio, Antonio,
He uttered a dismal moanio:
Then he ran off and hid
(Or I'm told that he did)
In the Antecatarctical Zonio.

Class Prophecy

In the summer of 1961 after nursing for seven years in Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, I was called out on the night of July 4, to make room for some patients injured in an automobile accident on the highway leading into the city. I was stunned out of my usual calm self-possession when I discovered that the most critically injured person was Norma Jean Hamil. She had gone out to write up the Independence Day celebration at Lexington for the Boston Tribune, as she was their most efficient news reporter. She had a broken leg, a broken arm, and internal injuries; but because of her strong constitution she made a quick recovery.

As we were talking over old times one day before she left the hospital, she told me that Bettye Aulin was secretary to the business manager of the Boston Tribune, that she was drawing a handsome salary, and was highly regarded by the entire staff. But wouldn't we expect that of efficient Bettye? Before long she will probably be running the office ---if she doesn't decide to become a homemaker. The tall, dark, handsome executive in her office seems eager to make other plans!

Not having had a vacation since I graduated from dear old O.H.S., I decided to get a leave of absence for the winter and spent it with relatives in Florida. Of course, I made a bee line for Oviedo. There I learned the news of my old classmates of '51.

Hazel Rutherford was happily married to Clayton Hasty, they had two boys, five and three, and a little daughter of one year. They are living in a huge hacienda adjoining their cattle ranch on the prairie, the one formerly owned by Charles Lee and Sammy long; but Hazel still remained her sweet self, unaffected by this sudden wealth.

I met Donald Hardy one day on the streets of Orlando, and stopped for a little chat about old times. He said that he and Juanita were living on the old Bachelor Estate in Winter Park, and he invited me to spend the weekend with them. He has become a professor in mathematics, and is now teaching at Rollins College, although he is still interested in the celery game in Oviedo.

One day as I was driving along enjoying the sunshine and scenery, I suddenly stopped, without signaling, to better enjoy the view over Lake Monroe. Suddenly a car smashed into me from the rear, and to my surprise the angry voice of Charlie, Jr. proceeded to tell me just what kind of woman driver I was. He used adjectives that he hadn't learned in the English class, but they were most effective at that time. He hadn't recognized me, but I knew that voice the minute I heard it. When I made myself known to him, he apologized and offered to pull my disabled car in to his Fixit Shop in Sanford, at no cost to me-- the same generous Charlie.

I asked Charlie about Sadye Beth, who had had the same ambition I had to become a nurse. He said she had married Edward Duda and that for a wedding present Mr. Duda had presented them the Duda sawmill and cattle ranch in Cocoa, Florida. Together they are making it pay and have two children already.

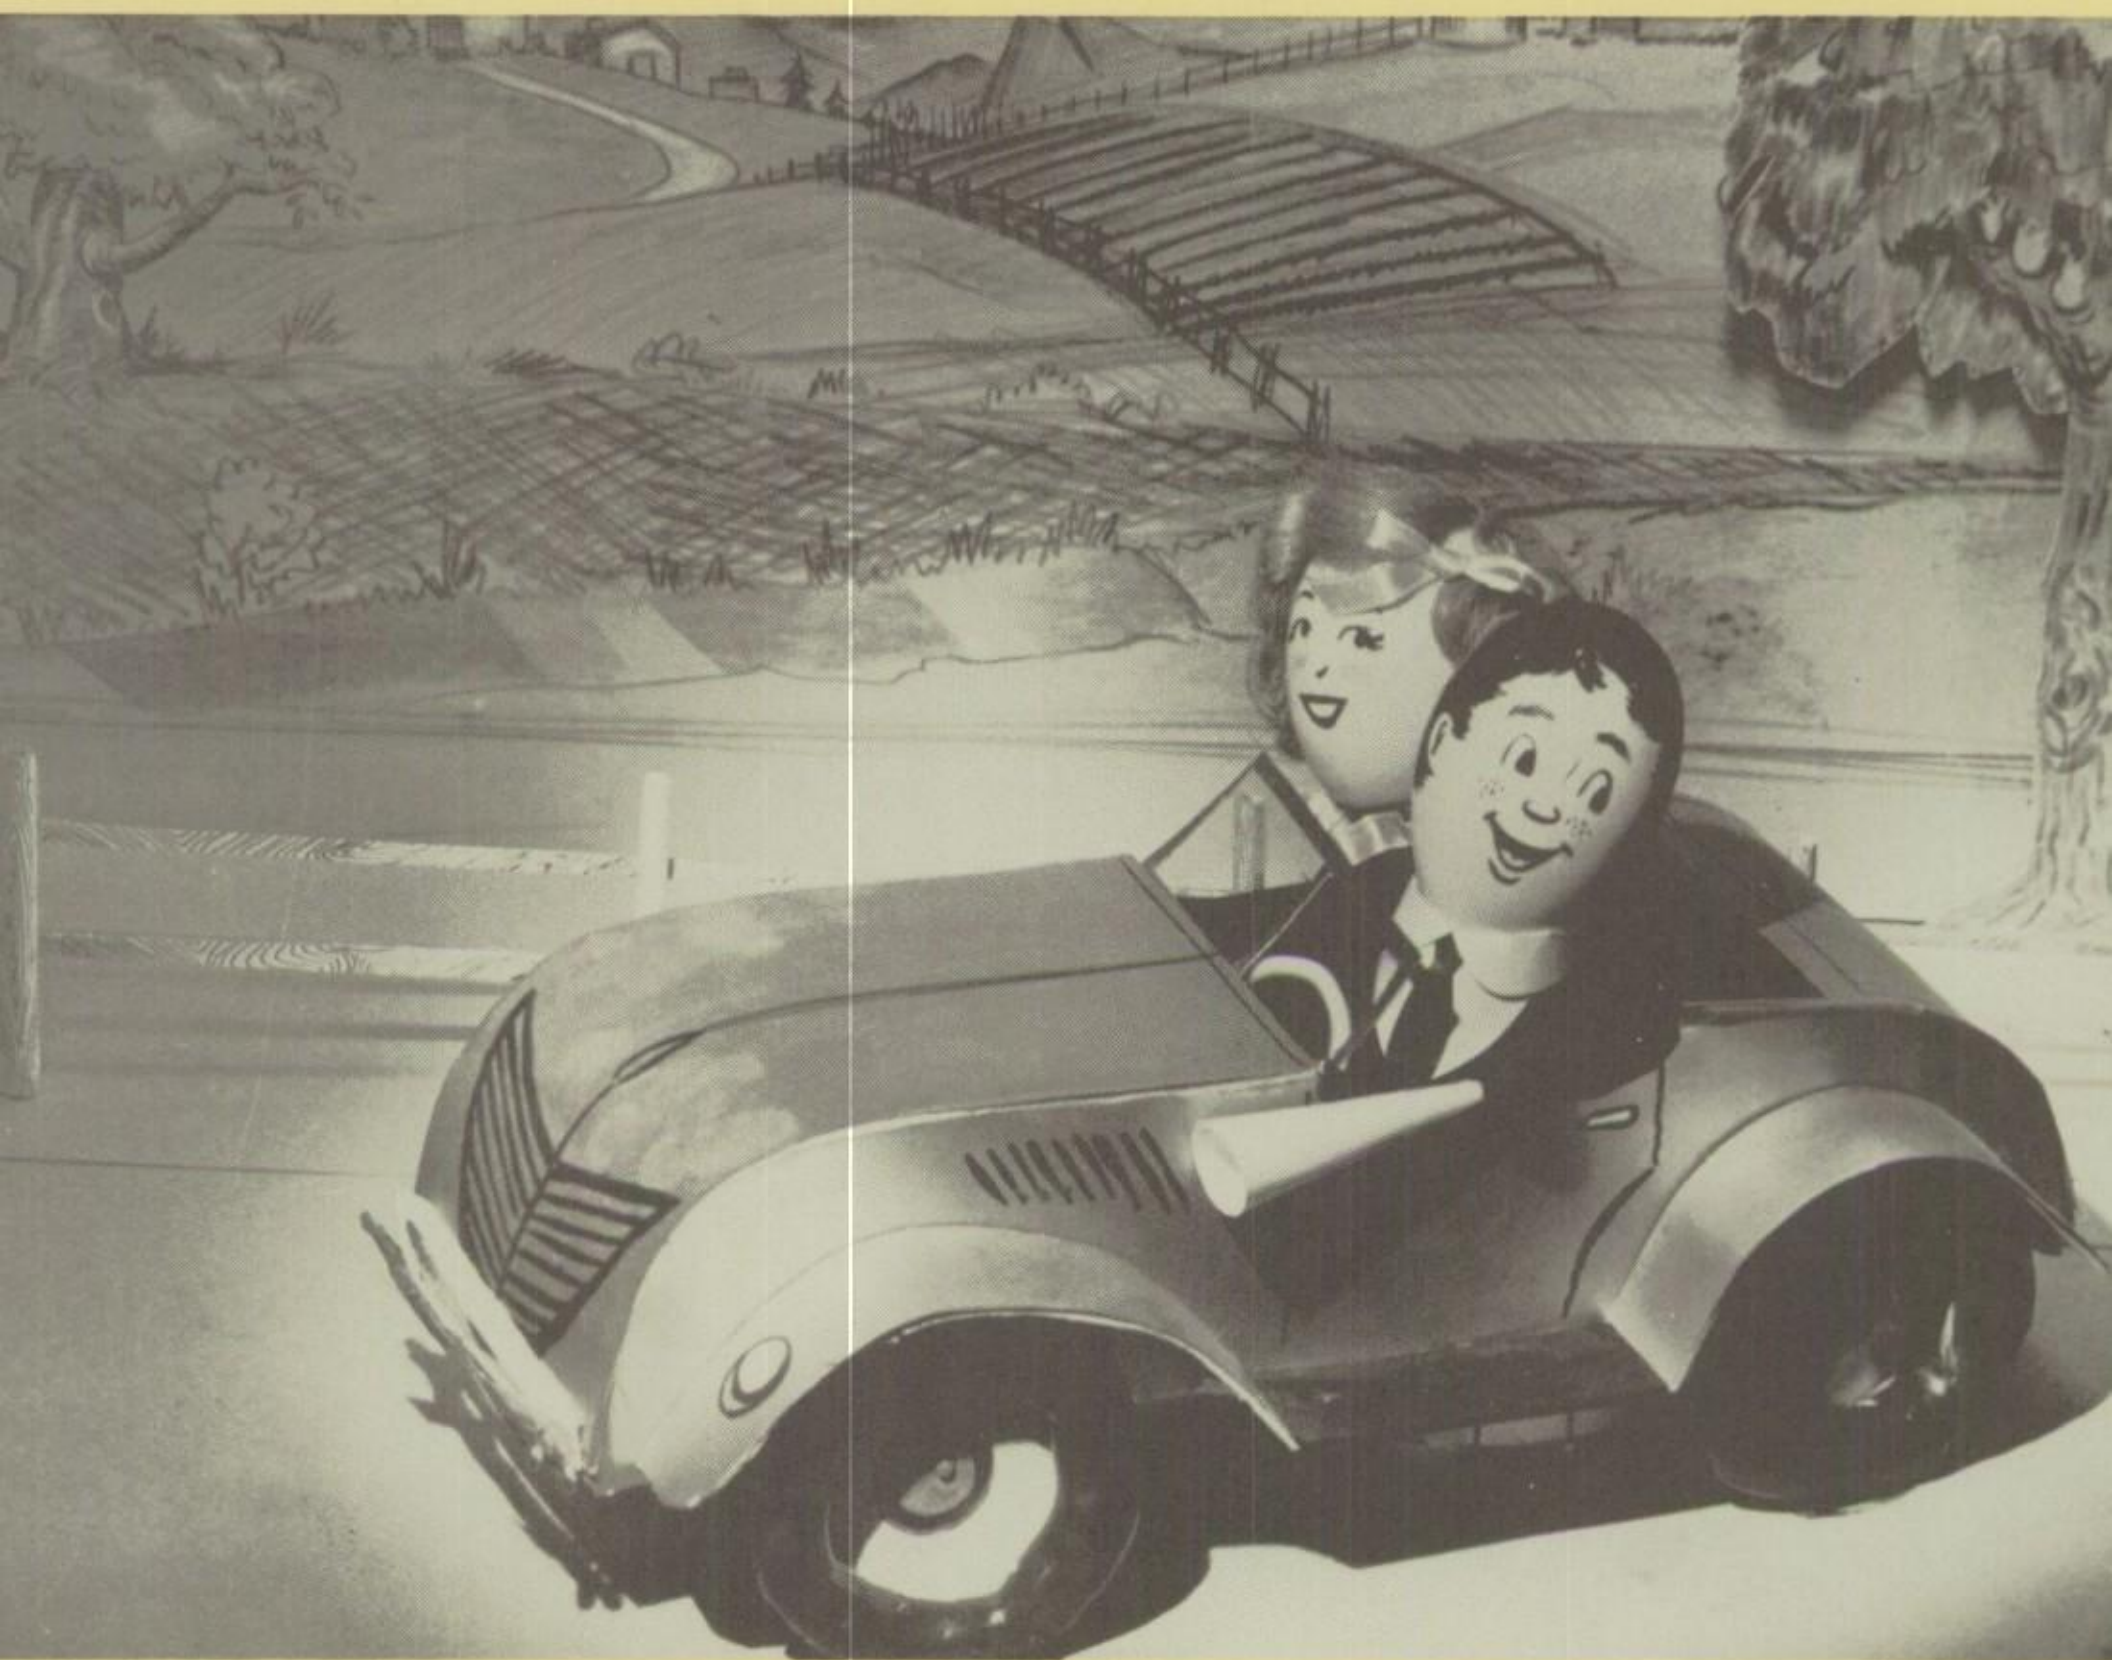

During my weekend visit with Donald and Juanita, I read a letter from Nina, in which she told about holding the position of athletic director at Brenau College for girls in Gainesville, Georgia. Her current heart throb is the coach of Gainesville High School. Will wedding bells ring soon for Nina?

Our songbird, Dorothy Malcolm, married in June 1951 just after graduation. Her color is now Lavender, but sometimes -- only just sometimes -- she is a little blue for the old crowd and the good old days at O.H.S. Her husband is now manager of Florida Power Corporation, and their brood of three little songbirds chase away those blues.

Of course, I had to visit O.H.S. before leaving. There I found the school had grown so large that a full time coach was needed; so Coach Mikler had been relieved of teaching history and bragging about Fort Bragg at the same time, and was in his new position which requires less wind and more exercise. 'Rah for Coach!

Soon after this visit to O.H.S. I returned to my position well pleased to know that the members of the class of '51 had each succeeded in his chosen life's path.

Girls' Basketball Boys' Basketball

Girl's Basketball

Our girls started the season this year with a small and fairly inexperienced team, but have a lot of determination and team spirit. At this writing we have a better record than any recent year, with six wins and three losses, despite colds and mumps cutting down the number of our players in several games. We have four more games on our schedule and we feel we have a pretty good chance of winning them.

Forwards this year are Captain Bettye Aulin, Juanita Barlow, Hazel Priest, Annie Lee Nettles, Shirley Jones, Georgene Parker, Ann Leinhart, and Mary Smithson.

Guards are Co-captain Sadye Beth Fleming, Cornelia Weitman, Joanne Fleming, Edith Ellis, and Martha Jean Hardy.

The girls to receive gold basketballs this year are Bettye Aulin and Sadye Beth Fleming.

Boy's Basketball

Our prospects for another strong basketball team this season looked doubtful, since we lost five regulars from last year's outstanding quintet. Only Jim Wheaton and Captain Theodore Glassmire are back to form the nucleus of the 1951 cagers.

We have won eight out of ten games, and hope to win most of our six remaining scheduled games. The surprising success of our team may be contributed to good teamwork, hard practice, and team spirit or the will to win.

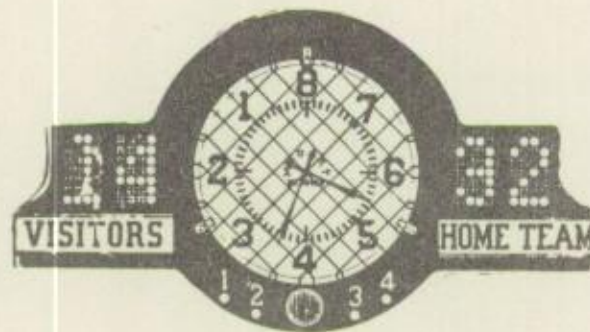

Only Tavares and Mount Dora have been able to defeat us, and they found our team very stubborn. We have beaten Pierson, Tutusville, and St. Cloud twice; Lyman and Mount Dora once.

Our starting five consists of the following: Charlie McCulley, Jim Wheaton, Don Hardy, Larry French, and Capt. Theodore Glassmire. The substitutes are as follows: Billy Meek, Donnie Kasell, Harvey Joe Slatyon, Norma Fore, Walter Duda, Richard Wyre, and Johnny Jones.

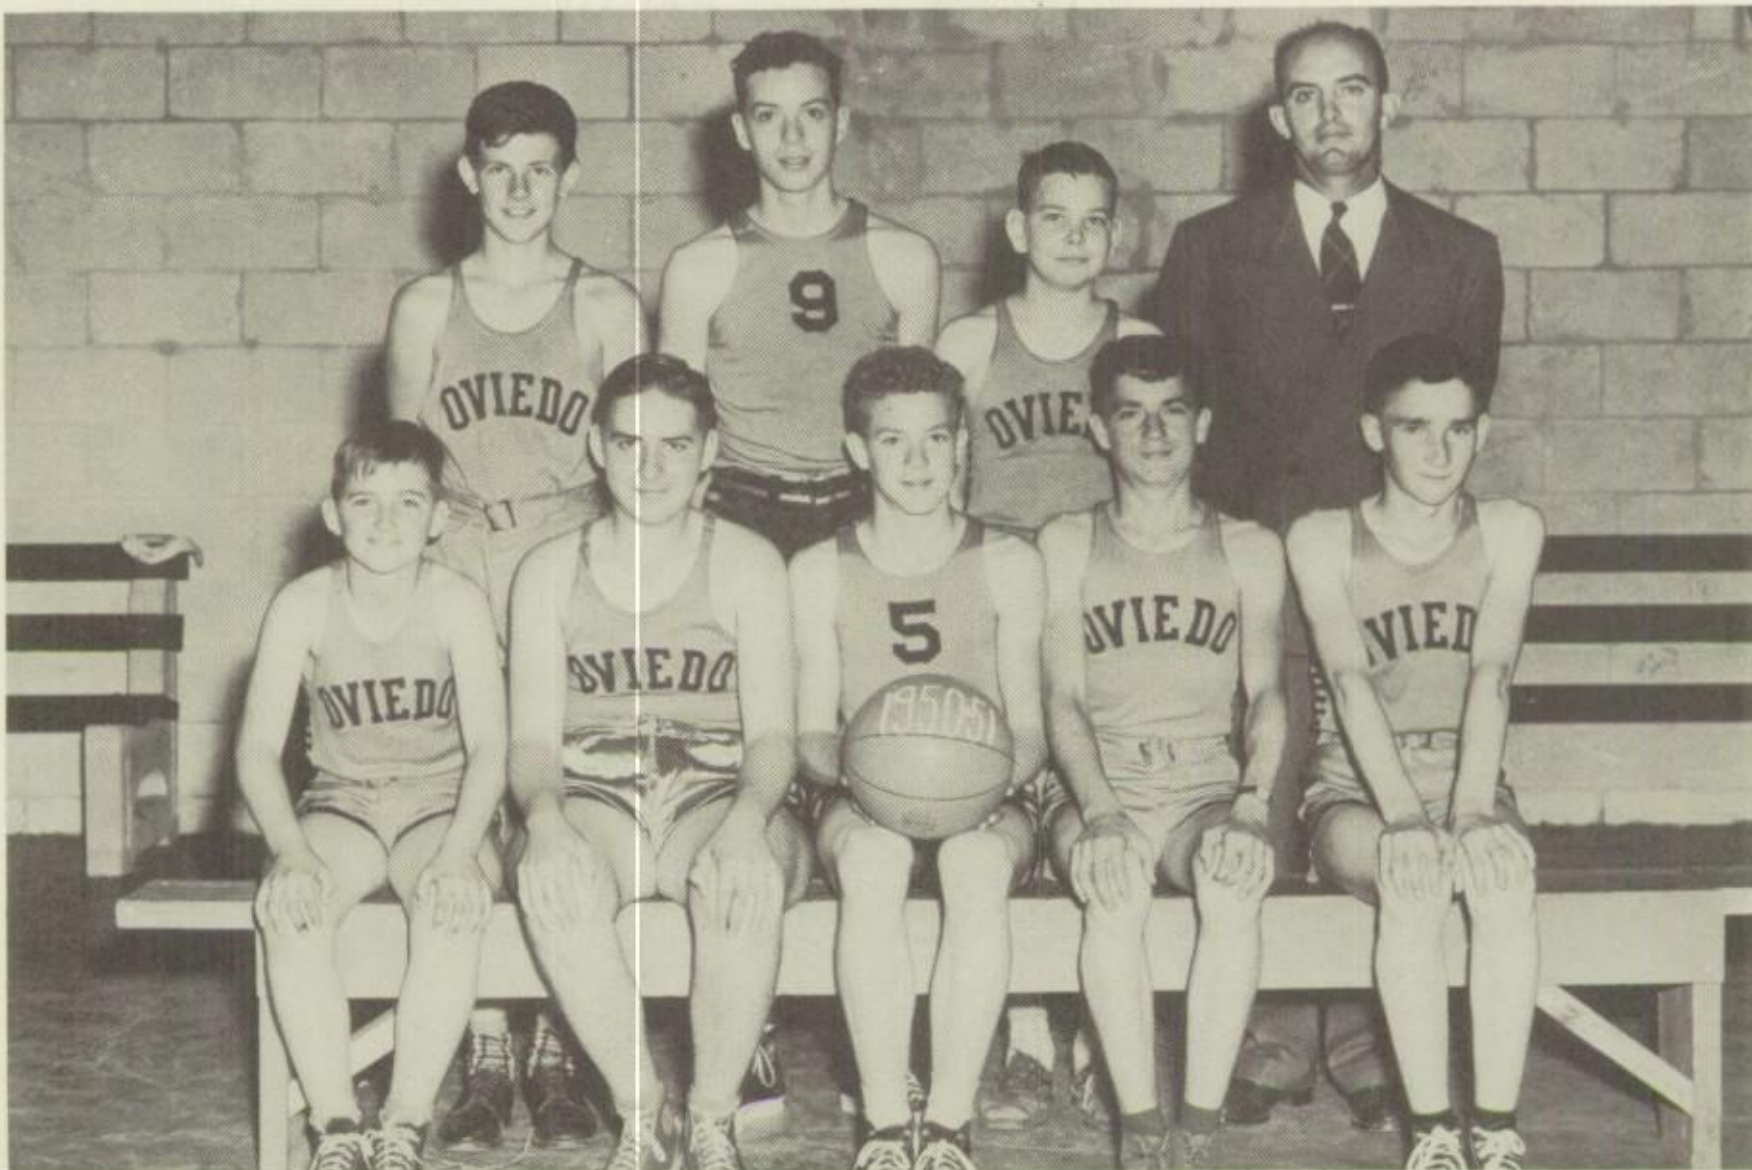

Our high scorers are Jim Wheaton who has made 116 points, Charlie McCulley 71, and Don Hardy 64.

Baseball Line Up

The 1951 Lion baseball team will be small and lack distance hitters. Our most difficult task will be replacing Edward Duda, Bob Ward, Erwin Abell and Frankie Gore, our last year's stars. The experience gained while playing with the Oviedo Junior American Legion team should pay dividends on the diamond this spring.

The success of the team will depend on developing a good catcher, a capable pitcher, two outfielders, good hitters, and fast base runners.

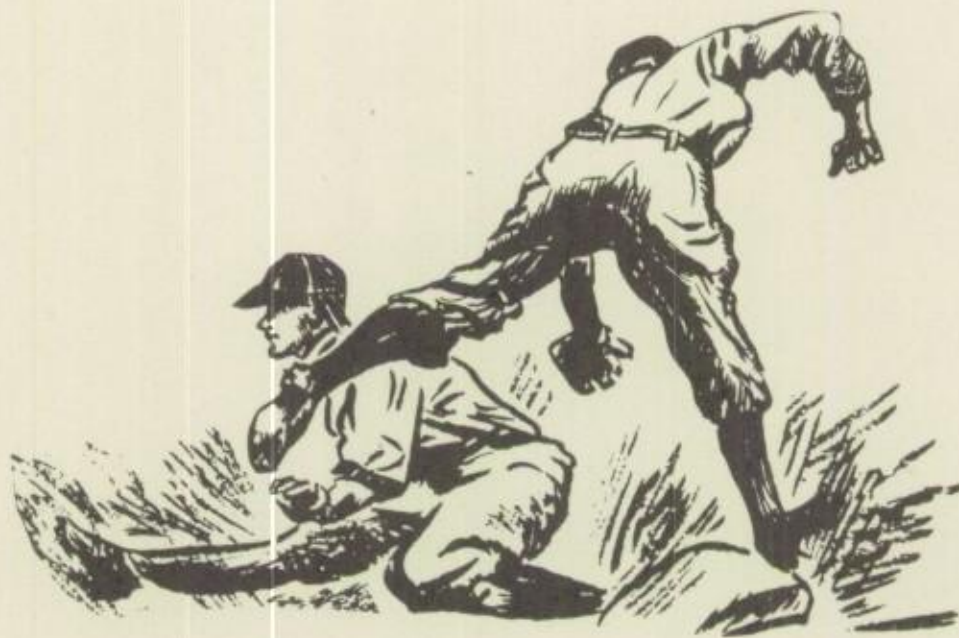

Our pitching staff will consist of Charlie McCulley, Walter Duda, and Larry French. These boys will play other positions while not pitching.

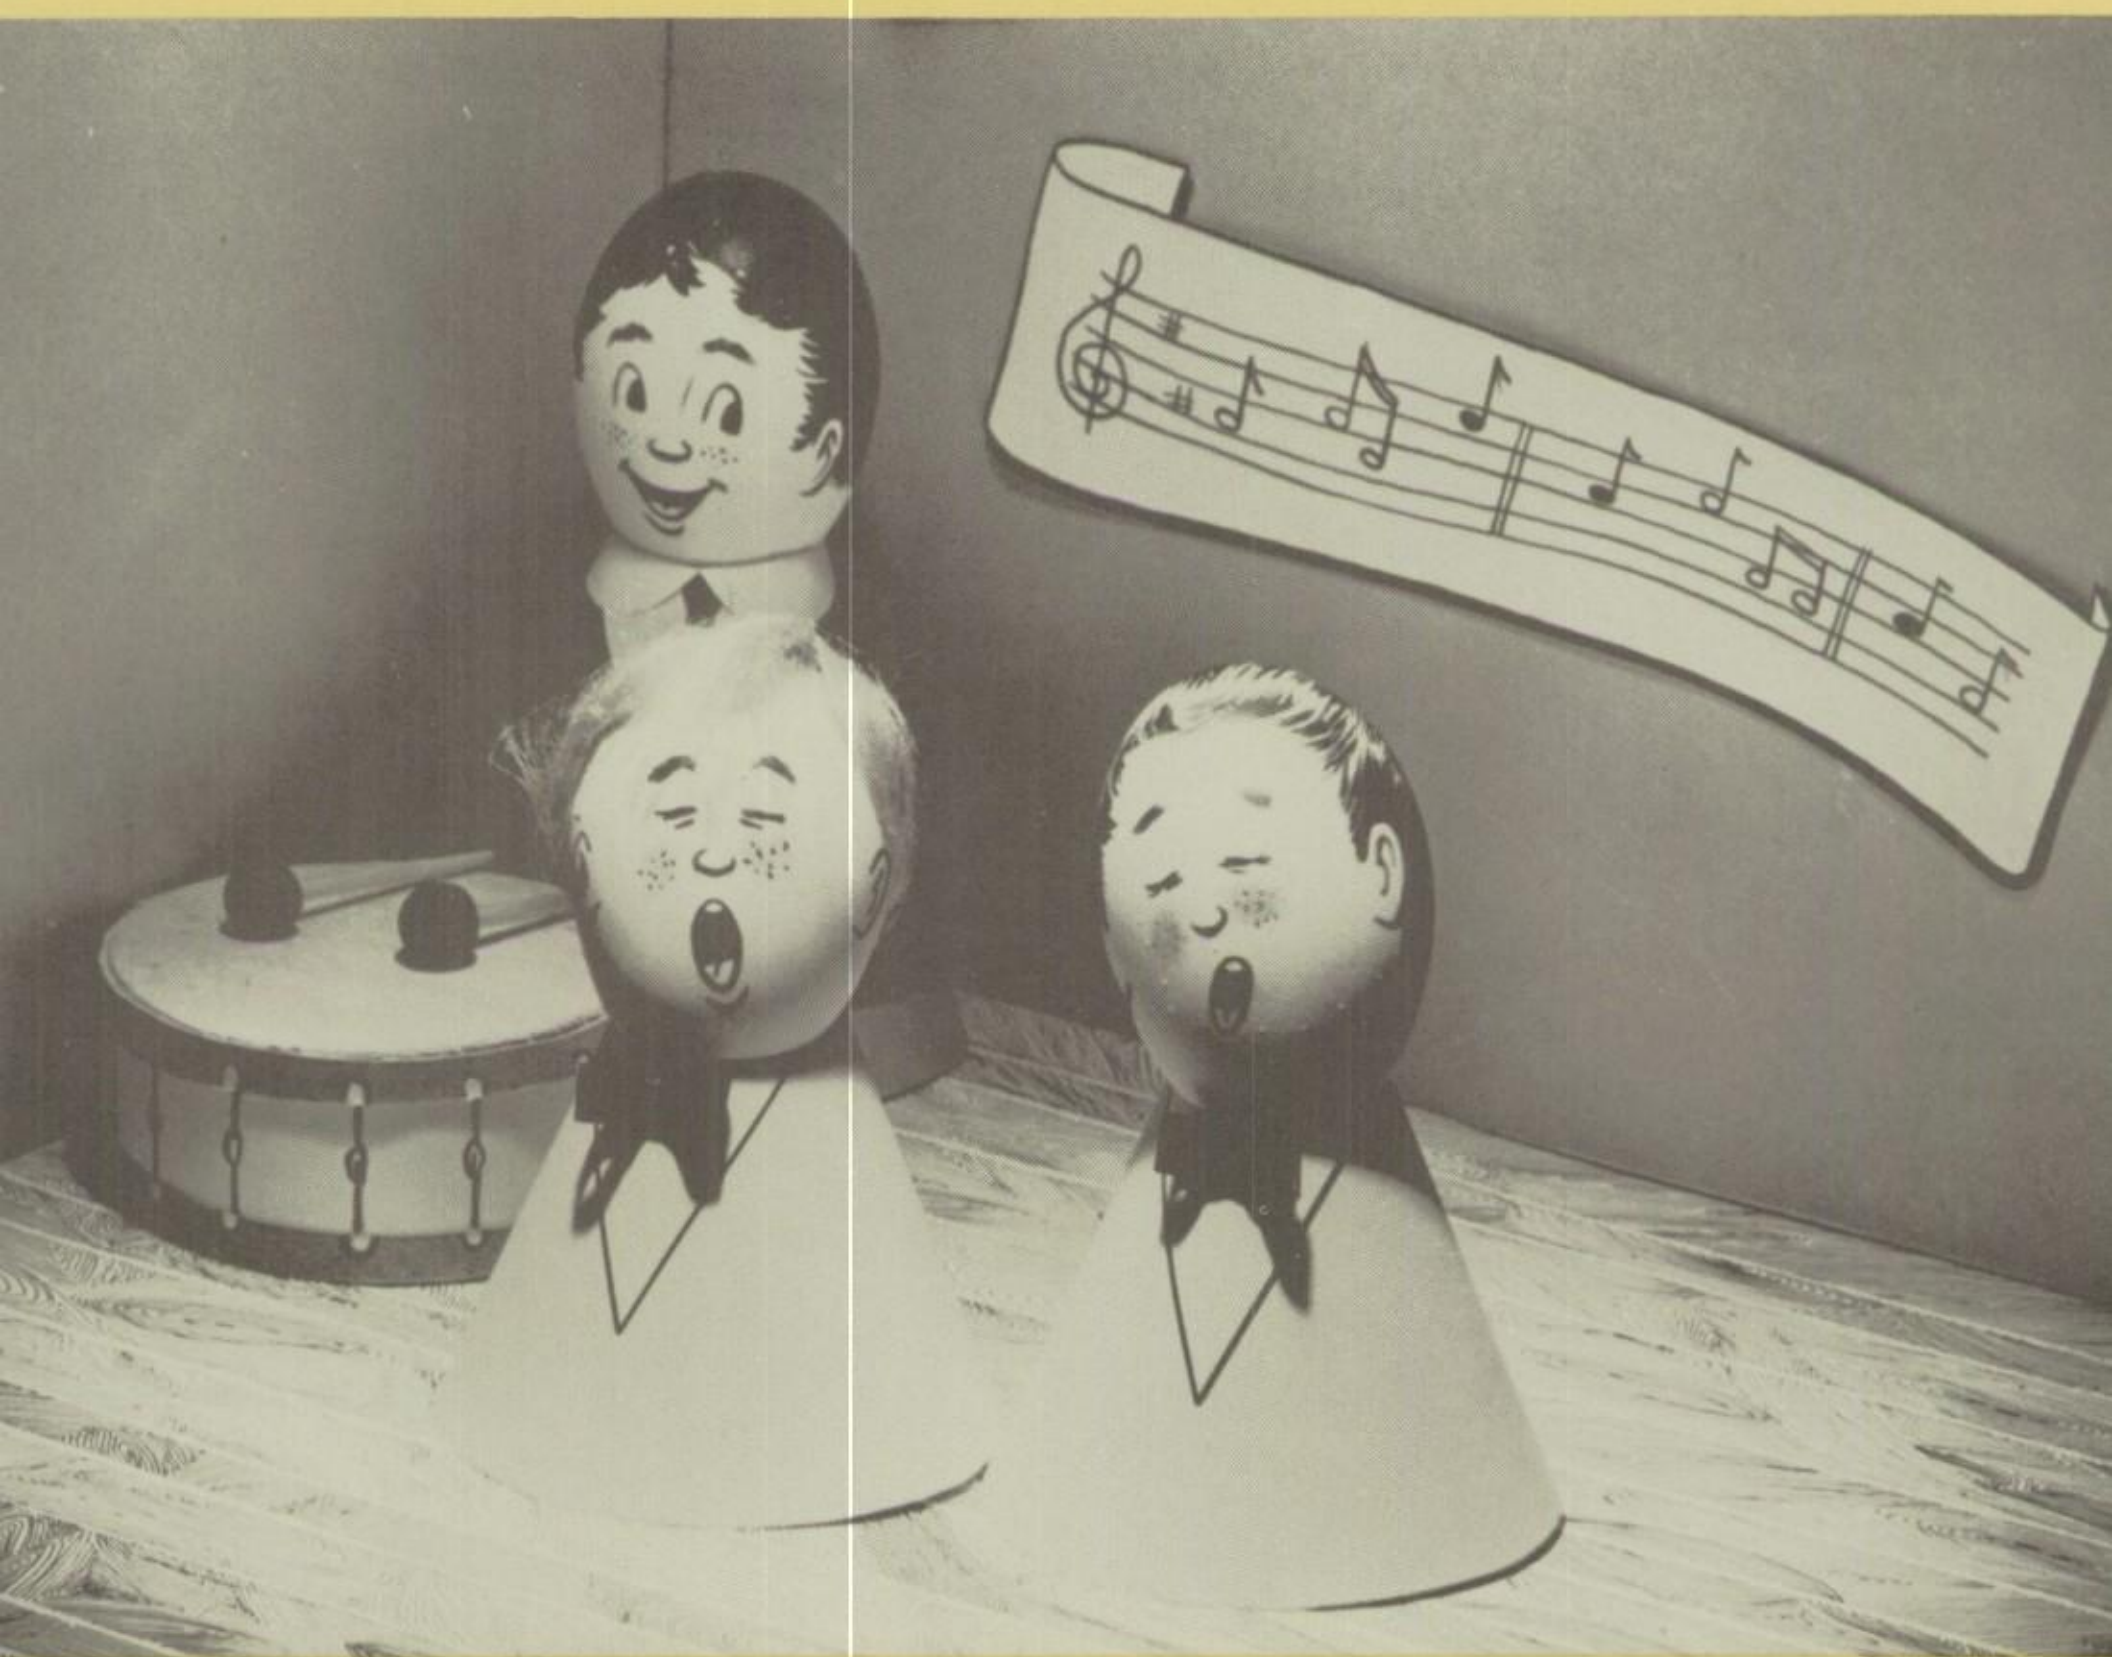

We hope to develop Johnny Jones into a catcher, so that Jim Wheaton may play center field to strengthen our outfield.

The infield seems to be intact with Billy Meek at first base, Larry French at second base, Donnie Kasell at shortstop, and Theodore Glassmire at third base.

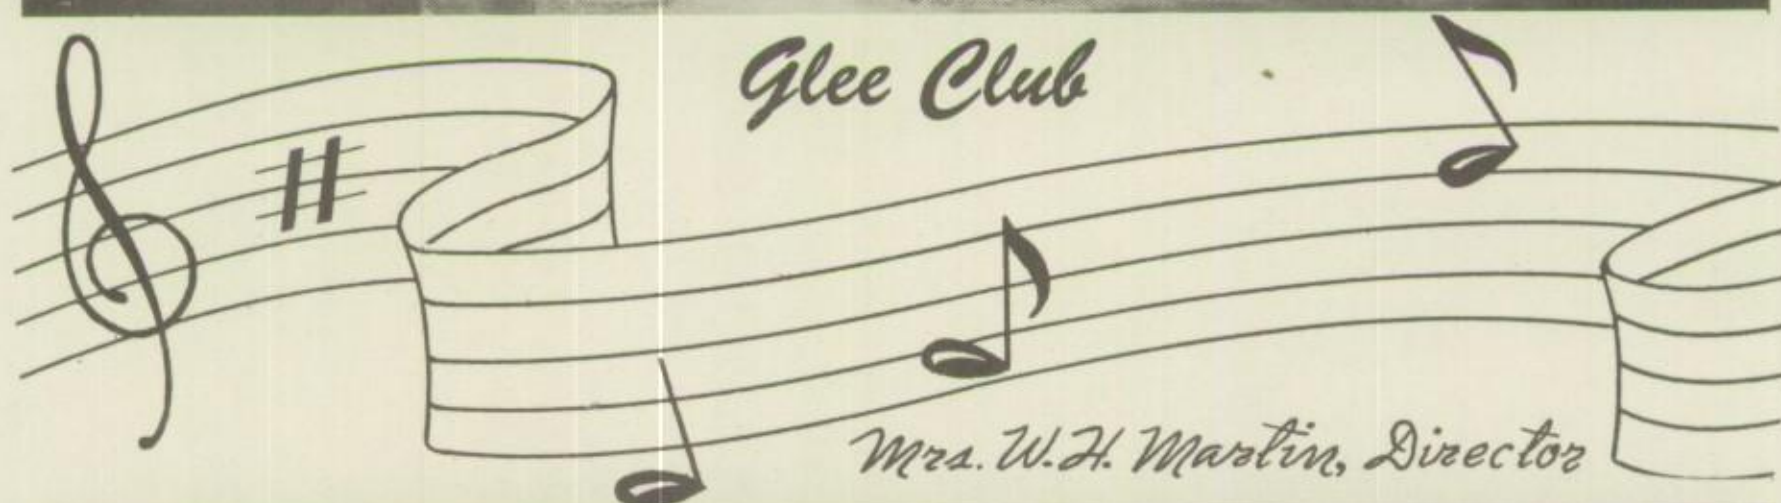

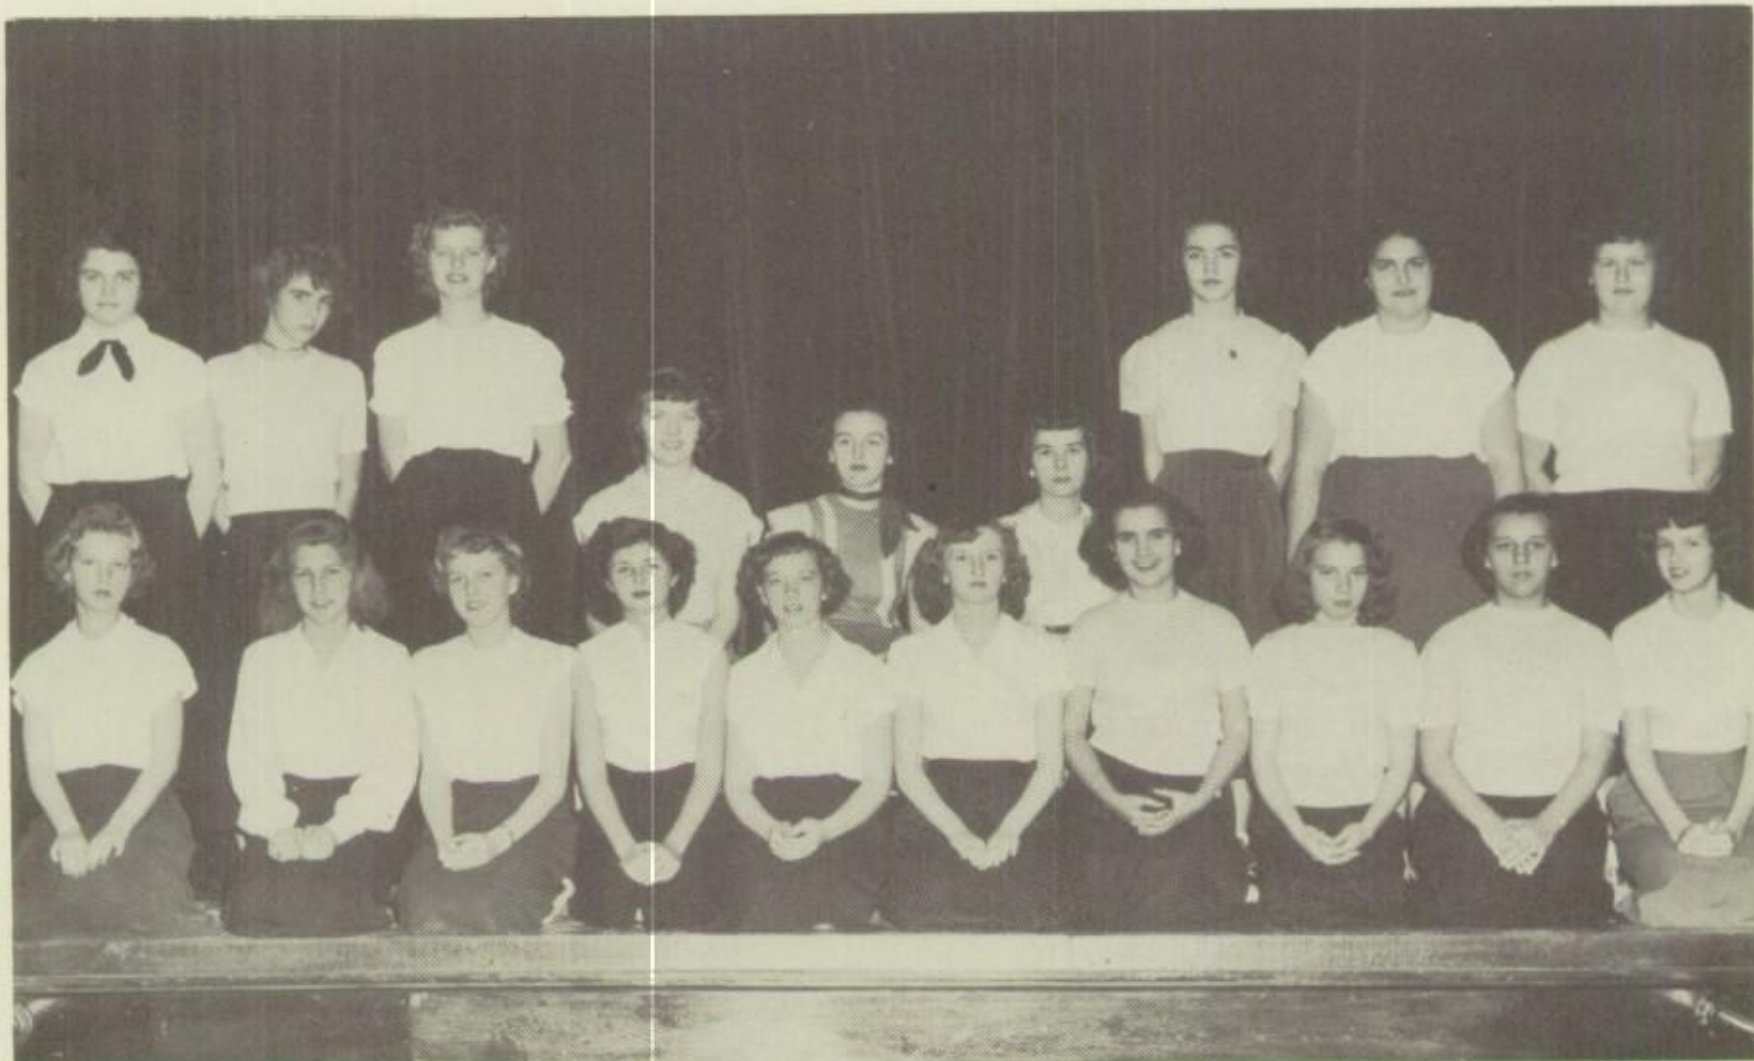

Jim Wheaton will start in centerfield, Walter Duda in left field, and right field is wide open.

Other members of the squad are as follows: Norman Fore, Richard Wyre, Ivan Jakubcin, Kenneth Malcolm, and George Domansky. These boys will have an opportunity to break into the lineup as the season progresses.

ADVERTISING

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF SERVICE

Your next twenty-five years are sure to be filled with tremendous events. Important to the world around you, and even more important to that world of your own.

We, of your parents' generation, went through a couple of world wars, an economic boom and an even bigger economic bust. But somehow we managed to survive.

Now it's your turn. Looking back, as old people will, we are thankful for the few good things we have been able to do. Looking ahead, we find our hopes and aspirations embodied in you.

We wish you all kinds of happiness and success and hope that you will get the same deep satisfaction from your life's work that we have found in twenty-five years of service to our friends and our community.

The Senior Class of 1951

Wishes to express their appreciation to the advertisers and friends who made this Annual possible.

Coach (on the bus coming back from a ball game): "Is there a mackintosh back there big enough to keep two young ladies warm?"

Gissie: "No, but there's a McCulley who's willing to try."

Two buzzards were lazily soaring over the desert when a jet-propelled plane zipped by them, its exhausts throwing flame and smoke. As it whizzed out of sight, one of the buzzards remarked: "That bird was really in a hurry."

"You'd be in a hurry too," said the other, "if your tail was on fire."

Insurance Man: "Ever had an accident?"

Norman: "Nope, but a rattler bit me once."

Insurance Man: "Don't you call that an accident?"

Norman: "No, he bit me on purpose."
